Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/15/06 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent No. 4,445,892 to Hussein et al. Hussein teaches a system comprising an isolation/access catheter 120 having proximal and distal ends, an occlusion element 134 near the distal end, and at least one lumen extending therethrough 146. A sealing catheter 124 has proximal and distal ends and a receptacle 144 therein. A closure element 136 is releasably carried in the receptacle of the sealing catheter. The sealing catheter 124 may be introduced through the lumen of the isolation/access catheter 120 and the closure element 136 may be deployed from the receptacle of the sealing catheter (figs. 4 & 5; col. 5, line 66-col. 6, line 30; col. 6, line 64-col. 7, line 36 of Hussein).

As to the limitation "for performing intraluminal lung volume reduction" on lines 1-2 of claim 1, the applicants should note that this is merely intended use language which cannot be relied upon to define over the prior art of record, since Hussein teaches all of the claimed structural elements and their recited relationships. The device of Hussein could certainly be used for intraluminal lung volume reduction.

Regarding claims 2 and 19, the closure element 136 comprises a plug, wherein element 136 may be used to plug a passage (fig. 5 of Hussein). With further regard to claim 19, the plug 136 is swellable (figs. 4 & 5 of Hussein).

Regarding claim 3, the isolation/access catheter 120 has at least two lumens (col. 6, line 64-col. 7, line 4 of Hussein).

Regarding claim 4, the isolation/access catheter 120 further includes a fiber optic scope 152 and light source disposed to permit forward viewing (Col. 5, lines 45-50; col. 6, lines 47-64 of Hussein).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
